NUMBER 114.

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY EDGAR SNOWDEN, SR.
OFFICE—No. 111 King street, over Sons's (formerly French's) Book Store.

NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

Jackson advises state that the Mississippi Legislature met there on the 20th instant, and instructed Gen. Clark to appoint Judges Sharkey, Fisher, and Georgan, commissioners to go to Washington and confer with the President on the subject of calling a convention with a view of restoring Mississippi to the Union.

General Sheridan arrived at St. Louis, on Saturday. He was met by a delegation of citizens, who gave him a warm welcome.

A most destructive fire occurred in Philadelphia on yesterday afternoon, in Mason's chair factory, which resulted in the destruction of the building and contents. Eight persons employed on the premises were injured. The loss will amount to over $50,000.

Dr. Henry McMurtrie, late professor of anatomy and physiology in the Central High school of Philadelphia, died yesterday, aged 73 years. Dr. McMurtrie was highly esteemed by the profession and public.

Gov. Magrath, of S. C., it is said, has escaped from Columbia. Pursuit is still made after Gov. Smith, of Va. He was last heard from at Lexington, where he was only a few days before the arrest of Gov. Letcher.

Gen. Wilson has ordered all Confederate States mules, horses, harness, wagons, and leather, in his department, not required for the use of the cavalry corps, to be turned over to Colonel Foster, Quartermaster General, to be distributed among the poor people as a loan, but returnable whenever called for by proper authority.

Hon. David L. Swain, president of the University of North Carolina, has been appointed one of the Board of Visitors to West Point for this year.

Advices from Mexico state that Maximilian's unpopularity is increasing—that an attempt was recently made to kidnap the Empress,—and that the successes of the Liberals continue.

Mrs. Beverly Tucker, Miss Tucker, Mrs. Magill and Miss Magill, arrived at Baltimore last week from Richmond, but were met at the wharf by Col. Wooley, Provost Marshal, with an order from the Secretary of War to send them back South. The ladies were placed under guard, and returned with the steamer to Richmond.

Bishop Potter, it is expected, will soon issue a pastoral address in relation to certain movements in the Episcopal church toward fraternization with other denominations.

The Pittsburg Commercial announces the arrival of Mrs. Lincoln in that city on Tuesday afternoon, on her way to Springfield, Illinois. Her arrival had been anticipated, and a large crowd of people congregated at the depot for the purpose of seeing her.

Railroad connections in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and the Southern States generally, are being rapidly completed.

Trade is reviving in Mobile, and the streets are thronged with army and navy officers and paroled Confederates, who mingle with each other on the most friendly terms.

PROF. LOUIS WUNDERMAN'S BLOOD PURIFYING AND PURGATIVE HERBS, (In Pills and Powders.)

THE BEST BLOOD PURIFYING agents as yet known, have been most successfully used for over a quarter of a century in Europe, and for the last 4 years, also, in this country, and are particularly efficient in the cure of all chronic diseases. No one should despair of being cured without first trying them. No family should be without them, for by their timely use much sickness can be prevented. They are imported direct to this port by the undersigned, and their purity, efficacy and safety can be relied upon with perfect confidence.

The following are some of the diseases which have been permanently removed by their use:

Tetter, Inflammation
of the bowels, consumption in its early stages, headache,
asthma, cough, sore eyes,
lockjaw, ruptures, rheumatism, cramp colic, catarrh, pain in the breast and sides, deafness, nervousness, spotted fever, chills and fever, ague, open wounds, pneumonia, dyspepsia, salt rheum, cancer, scrofula, jaundice, tapeworm, biliousness, eruptions of the skin, bowel complaint, langour, gout, dropsy, erysipelas, worms, cholera, piles,
diarrhoea, hoarseness, swellings, bloatings, bloody and white flux, dysentery, costiveness, measles, &c.

Full directions accompany each remedy.
